Don't Fret the Small Stuff

The new year begins at last. It's been a great break, but too long for my guitar playing process. Although I have managed to come up with a complete original Blues song as well as about 5 new noodles occupying space on my Looper, I really have missed our regular jams and hope that you have too. Playing with others is the point really and Boy !... do we have a busy time over the next couple of months as the Summer moves away.

- The Jams start again on the 2nd of February;
- Our first guest artists "Juice on the Loose" lined up for the clubnite on the 16th of February;
- Being asked to organise of the music part of the BikeBluesBBQ fund raising event for the Devonport Rotary Club and the Devonport Riders Club for Sunday the 6th of March.

Also Craig and I are hoping to organise another Jam on the Cliff event for late March if we can find some help and a sponsor to make it a better publicised event than the first one last year. If you want to help with any or all of these events, please get in touch, don't be shy, we really need all the help we can get !!

Well, it looks like we're in for a great year so far,

Keep noodlin'

Cheers Dennis Reeve, Prez.
