Don't Fret the small stuff:

Well the year rolls on and we roll with it!!

What a great day we had with Stuie and Camille. There are some photos, info and a review on the website www.nzguitar.com. If you were there, leave a comment, so others can get an idea of what unexpected experiences we can get from a guest artist like this pair. And any photos are gratefully accepted.

Really looking forward to David Lynch, this month's guest from the USA - a man travelling the planet with his family and sharing his music with others. Get the word out.

Anyone who would like to participate in his a workshop/clinic/jam, please let me know as soon as possible so we can get it formalised. If you have the space to offer to David and Family while they are in Auckland, email me reeve@wibble.net and I'll pass the offer on.

The last few Open Mic sessions have been great with varied participation and contributions from the brave souls on the board. This month it's the regular space before the guest artist so all welcome. Any style, any skill level, everyone is encouraged to have a go. The most accepting and supportive audience you could ever stand up in front of.

We have a lot more to come, including the AGM on Wednesday 2nd Nov 2011, ahead of the Jam. Everyone is welcome to attend and contribute, and Paid-up Members can vote.

Kevin Borich 2 Dec 2011

See you at the next Jam?

Keep noodling,

Dennis
