Don't Fret the small stuff:

NZ Music month is over for 2010 and although we are now well used to hearing all manner of NZ music in all sorts of places it's still great to feel that for at least one month out of twelve we are able to consciously focus on what an amazingly prolific, varied and talented bunch of musicians we have in our immediate midst. There is an enormous range of historical musical footage on the new Heartlands channel on MySky or Freeview and it's amazing how good we've been and for how long.

SUPPORT LIVE MUSIC !!! It's what keeps original music alive.

Our recent jams have been well supported and even a little crowded, with the need to squeeze electrics and acoustics into the small bar at the PONZ due of the presence of other users in the venue. The upside has been the enormous fun generated by those present through more listening and a general reduced level of volume required by the circumstances, which enabled greater appreciation of all of our vast range of skills and interests which we were able to share. More of this would be great. Looking forward to where this may take us.

See you on 16th for good times with special guest Diane Ponzio.

Also, we have Acoustic Guitar Technician Warren George who has kindly offered to put in some time with us this club night for a Q and A session around getting the best out of the set up for your acoustic guitar

Keep Noodlin'

Cheers,

Dennis Reeve
