Don't Fret the small stuff:

Its' half way through NZ Music month and we seem to be a little behind the game !! However, we do have a huge list of future events to look forward to and a special guest group for this month, playing Salsa and Latin rhythms and reminding us all that the guitar is everywhere and can be applied in an infinite variety of ways. Should be a great night, make sure you warm up your next Wednesday night with some South of the Border spice.

Our Jam nights have recently been joined by Reto, an exceptional young guitarist visitor from Germany and his last appearance was most enjoyable, all the best for the remainder of your OE and we look forward to hearing from you again soon.

See you all on Wednesday night,

Keep Noodlin'

Cheers,

Dennis Reeve

Jam news reminder:

We are about to begin a Song of the Month initiative for the jam nights. The idea is to dedicate 15 to 20 minutes at each jam to work on a single song each month. This will allow the steady build up of a level of competence in at least 10 new songs per year. Each month we are expecting the song will be contributed by a regular attendee; eg: Phil, Tony, Ian, Val, Dennis, Arno, Dave, Shayle etc. and will be led/taught with music/tabs/words provided as a way of developing a repertoire and providing a common purpose with a variety of styles and genres of music being introduced this way. Otherwise, the Jam will continue as we are currently developing it, as a double group separated into acoustic and electric. Everyone is welcome and all suggestions by all participants are more than welcome.
